

MISS CLEVELAND A BRIDE TO-DAY IN WAR ROMANCE

HELEN CLEVELAND.

Former Red Cross Worker to Wed
Clement J. Smith, Who Served
With Her in Russia.

Miss Helen Cleveland, daughter of Mrs. Ralph D. Cleveland of No. 67 West 11th Street, will become the bride of Clement J. Smith of San Francisco at 5.30 this afternoon at the home of her mother. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Father Grogan of St. Joseph's Church.

The couple first met in 1919 while on shipboard bound for Siberia as Red Cross workers. Later both were attached to the same station at Viadvozhsk, Russia, where they became engaged after a brief courtship. Mr.
Smith during the war was an aviator in the army, but joined the Red Cross service when the armistice was declared.
After a honeymoon trip the couple will go to Shanghai, China, where they will reside.

217 Crepe de Chine NEGLIGEEES

TO GO AT INCREDIBLE PRICE $5.95

One Couldn't Buy the Materials at This Price

They're made of good heavy weight crepe de chine;
They're in three darling models;
They're dainty and pretty, with little additional balls, fruits and ribbons;
They're really meant to sell for about twice this price, but—some of them, not all of them are slightly water spotted.
Why! you might spot one so the first time you wore it; and, besides, lots of them are perfect.

In charming colors: copen,
pink, rose, lavender, wistaria
